Prof. A. Gray:

Dear Sir - Your favor of the 4th inst.
finds me convalescent after an attack of dengue or broken-bone fever - the most popular ailment here - very painful but never fatal -

I am glad to have that med fl. Strobilina settled
- it has puzzled me for years - I think Watson first called it Daubentonia punicea and I have never been able to shake it out of my mind as the correct one - In your determination of the other native plants you confirm mine except Eriocaulon gnaphalodes - Here in E. Fla. that sp. appears in Feb'y.
& March & disappears in April, growing in rather moist ground.
On the grass hard sandy shore of Lake Dr. Funnick it appears in Sept. or Aug. & lasts till Jan'y. How can you reconcile that? Sorry I did not send a plant in fl. of Cacalia.

In the pkg. before this last I sent a Physalis of which I made a set, a branch of diffusely branched annual, which you did not name.

I now send a pkg. containing about 50 sheets of that Desmodium which you thought would prove a n. sp. It grows with D. lineatum in grassy dry pine barrens - collected Oct. 4th - D. lineatum of which you will find a few spms. mixed with it - has strictly prostrate leafy stems, while the new one is as nearly erect as so slender a plant can be - seldom rising over 2 ft. The three upper sheets contain spms. of a plant exceptional in size, reclining at base, stems 5 ft. long. The new(?) sp. seems to me intermediate between D. lineatum & D. strictum - am not sure but you will find some of the latter - At top of Desmodium you will find two odd sheets, one containing the late shrubby form of Sida rhomb. I am to collect the var. retusa, but think this is not it - though I am sure I have found var. retusa in the city - the other sheet is from W. Fla. Sept. 16 - spm. D. lineatum & if something I cannot determine - found but one in swamp, handsome blue fl. - If of no use to you you may return it provided you return the Desmodiums & you need not return them unless they prove a new sp. or var. You can in that case reserve 15 sheets.

Yours truly

A. H. Curtis
